

If I am bound, my Father is not free.

What choice would become possible if love did not require me to remain in this role?